THE DELANY HOTEL

Since 1924

Positioned in the heart of Newcastle on Darby Street

Nestled into the corner of Darby Street and Council Street, you'll find our long-standing and well-loved neighbourhood bistro, Hotel Delany (but you can call us The Del).

Locally owned and operated, our Australian bistro is an iconic piece of Newcastle's foodie scene, where friends and family have been gathering together for generations.

Not only a dining destination for lunch and dinner, our home is also complete with endless spaces to suit every outing. Dance to live music and DJ sets, grab a cold beverage from any of our four bars, stay the night at our boutique accommodation, host parties in The Del's function room or watch your favourite game on an array of live sports screens. There's even a drive-thru bottle shop for those on the go.

Following a multi-million-dollar refurbishment, The Del continues to grow as one of Newcastle's hottest spots to eat, drink, dance and stay.

The Delany Hotel has had a thriving history and trades from 11am – 12 am Monday through Saturday, 11 am – 10 pm Sundays.
